

2010 Fairbanks Tired Iron River Party

Saturday- Feb 27th

Downtown River Party

Noon - 2pm (maybe earlier...maybe longer....)

Bunny Boot Golf Contest

-Bunny boot Golf contest (chip a golf ball into the "frozen Ice hole" and win a pair of Bunny Boots from Big Rays, and up to $1000 cash!

Kid-a-Polt

Team of three kids is slingshot across the ice on plastic saucer sleds with the world's largest rubber band (courtesy of Alaska Rubber). Call it stupid human curling. It's like a water balloon slingshot, but with young children instead of balloons. If one of your opponents lands on or near the target, a child from the opposing team is slung down the ice to try to knock them off the target. Highest score wins. Winning team at the end of the day gets the grand prize. (helmets provided)

Turkey Toss & Shot Put

Using the underhanded granny shot, contestants try to send a 13 lb defrosted turkey through the basketball hoop on the ice. Then using rules sanctioned by the US Olympic shot put team, see who can shot put the flaccid bird the furthest. Spiked shoes and steroids are strictly prohibited.

Other Fun Stuff

We are attempting to have some hockey games on the ice, dog sled rides, and other fun stuff. If you are interested in organizing an event for this river party, submit your idea (click on the volunteer link and describe it), and we will determine if it will be part of the event. Remember, 100% of the proceeds of these games go to our charity. We will have staff members of the charity on hand to collect the contest revenue and make change. We appreciate your efforts to help a really great cause.

Proceeds from all events go to benefit the Presbyterian Hospitality House
